

MIAMI SHORES POLICE DEPARTMENT

BOLO

RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY SUSPECTS

The home at 9900 block of Biscayne Blvd was burglarized on Tuesday 11/13 between 4 and 4:30 pm.

The burglary was a distraction-type of offense.

4 white hispanic males perpetrated a distraction-type burglary against the elderly couple at 9900 block of Biscayne Blvd. The subjects arrived by vehicle in the alley and approached the male victim (85 yoa) who was working outside the home. The subjects stated that they were from Miami Shores Village and were there to cut the hedges. They claimed to know the victim's wife (83 yoa) and asked to go inside to see her. Two subjects went inside the home and two remained outside, though they remained in radio contact (via "walkie talkies"). The thieves were able to get jewelry that was located in an armoire in the master bedroom.

The victims were able to provide a broad description of the subjects.
All 4 were white Hispanic males

1 was about 40 years old, around 5'6", heavy build, mustache, white hat, white shirt, grey pants, pair of gloves

Another was also about 40 years old, he wore a blue hat, grey shirt, bluejeans.

The subject vehicle is described in broad terms as:
a gray or silver pick-up truck with a bed liner.
